 FROM DEMOCRACY TO REPUBLI-CANISM.

Since our last report thousands of protection democrats have given public notice that they will vote for Harrison and Morton. Among them only a few names can be mentioned.

The German-American Republican Club of the Twenty-second Assembly District of New York has among its 100 members thirty men who voted for Cleveland.

O. W. Hyde, one of the foremost formers in Janesville County, Wisconsin, and a life-long democrat, is among the recent notable recusants to the republican ranks.

Mr. Bruce Lefever, a prosperous farmer of Morrow County, Ohio, cradled and reared an uncompromising democrat, has erected a tall pole in front of his residence from the top of which hangs a Harrison and Morton flag.

Charles W. Henderdon, a leading and influential democrat of Ossining, New York, puts a card in the effect that his name was used at the local democratic caucuses last week without his consent. He intends to support Harrison and Morton this year.

In the wholesale house of Dunham, Buckley & Co., New York, there are 300 employees, many of whom were formerly democrats. All of them, with the exception of one prohibitionist, will vote for Harrison and Morton and protection to American homes and American labor.

Thomas B. Carroll, democrat, an ex-mayor of Troy, N. Y., has come out for Harrison, Morton, and protection. This makes the fourth democratic ex-mayor of Troy to take this step, the other three being William L. Van Alstyne, George B. Warren and Joseph M. Warren. Mr. Carroll was in the senate for two terms and has served as canal appraiser.

Another prominent democrat of Brooklyn to leave the democratic party to support Harrison and Morton is ex-Judge Samuel D. Morris. Judge Morris was elected county judge and district attorney on the democratic ticket, and has always been high up in the councils of the party. Says: "I have been a democrat all my life, but I am for Harrison, Morton, and protection. I have not been active in politics for several years, but I can't keep quiet this time. I want to go on that stamp, and I want to be sent where I can talk to democrats."

Dr. Emler, of Louisville, Ind., was in the union army, and bears honorable scars. He has been an old-line democrat, but in a recent speech he said: "When President Cleveland issued the order to return the rebel flags I thought it was time that every right-thinking democrat soldier should sever his relations with the democratic party and try to get every one that was loyal to America to vote the republican ticket."

Ex-Assemblyman John Seely, of New York, who up to this election has been a strong democrat and a faithful adherent of Tammany, has come out most enthusiastically for Harrison and Morton. For many years he was a Tammany leader in the seventeenth ward, of which he was one of the most respectable citizens and which he several times represented in a legislative capacity. About three weeks ago he organized a Harrison and Morton Campaign club in the district, in which he voted, including a large percentage of old-time democrats, have enrolled themselves.

A man by the name of Gough, of Chippewa Falls, has written a letter to the Milwaukee Sentinel attempting to show that wages are higher and living less expensive in Scotland than in the United States. If Mr. Gough is right and is honest why doesn't he return to Scotland. Did he ever know of a Scotch mechanic, an English mechanic, or any other foreign mechanic, returning to his old home from the United States because wages were higher there than here? Nayor. When they get here they are mighty glad to remain. Here they build their little houses and receive fair wages, whereas if they staid in Europe they would not be much better.

HAVE YOU HEARD FROM MAINE?

Our friends, the democrats, will not find much comfort in the news from Maine. In fact, it will be hard to make them hear from Maine at all. News of that kind falls heavily upon an unwilling ear. But the state has gone too clean for Burleigh (Rep.) governor, and for everybody else that was running on the republican ticket. There was a very heavy vote polled, and an extraordinarily vigorous canvass was made by the democrats especially that the republican plurality might largely cut down. But is this the democratic hope has been blasted and their hard work has been lost.

The vote of Maine for governor at the state election of 1884 was as follows:

Robt. (Rep.)..... 75,729
Harrison (Dem.)..... 58,670
Burke (Ind.)..... 3,000
Eustis (Pro.)..... 1,457

Republican plurality..... 19,672

The presidential vote in 1884 was:

Blaine (Rep.)..... 21,716
Harrison (Dem.)..... 3,000
Butler (Ind.)..... 2,000
St. John (Pro.)..... 2,113

Republican plurality..... 20,000

At the state election, in 1885, the vote for governor stood:

Bodwell (Rep.)..... 88,887
Bartlett (Dem.)..... 3,000
Clark (Pro.)..... 4,872

Republican plurality..... 85,000

Estimates from the best informed political sources placed the republican plurality on Monday at 12,000. The democrats estimated that they would cut down the plurality to 7,000 or 8,000.

The dispute to-day indicated that the republicans have carried the state by a larger vote than since 1860. Mr. Blaine, in a telegram to Harrison, thinks Burleigh will have a majority of 20,000 over the democratic candidate, and Mr. Manley, chairman of the republican state committee, places the republican plurality at 20,000. Every republican senator has been elected, and four-fifths of the lower house, as well as all the candidates for congress by increased majorities. There has been a falling off in the prohibition vote which indicates that the more enlightened members of the third party are becoming disgusted with the democratic policy of their leaders.

Maine has spoken well. Its voice harmonizes with that of Vermont and Oregon. It will harmonize with that of all the northern states. The people are in dead earnest this year. They propose to stand by protection and by the republican principles of political progression and moral elevation.

OH, NO.

Neither Mr. Cleveland nor the democratic congressmen want free trade, they say. Of course not. They don't want free trade, but they want protectionism.

They don't want American industries to go down, but they want British goods to take the place of American goods. Here is the testimony of some good democrats as to the spirit of the democratic party toward free trade.

Speaker Osterville—All trade should be as free as possible.

Grover Cleveland—I believe in free trade as I believe in the Protestant religion.

Roger Mills—I desire free trade and I will not help to perfect any law that stands in the way of free trade.

Henry Watterson—The democratic party is a free trade party or it is nothing. The democrat who is not a free-trader should go elsewhere.

Secretary Fairchild—Add to the free list as many articles as possible. Reduce duties upon every dutiable article to the lowest point possible.

Congressman Hale—If we did not require money to defray the expenses of the government I would be an absolute and uncompromising free trader.

Henry George—Mr. Cleveland stands before the country a champion of free trade. Mr. Mills' speech is a manly, vigorous, and most effective free trade speech.

S. S. Cox—It would be a glorious consummation of this delato could we only have gentlemen on the other side join in this invocation to paper and type and to the hearts of honest men to clear the way for the British Cobden free trade.

Mr. George William Curtis in Harper's Weekly mildly "regrets" the fact that the President has contributed $10,- 000 to the Democratic partisan campaign fund and says that it will "bring into contempt the cause of civil service reform!" Mr. Curtis is in a very bad way regarding Mr. Cleveland's contribution to the democratic campaign fund.

But why is he so much cast down? Isn't Mr. Cleveland following the line marked out by the democratic managers? From first to last he has done nothing but bring into contempt the cause of civil service.

The Sentinel is right when it says that the biggest political straw of that season is the protection address of $600 Bay View workingmen. The address will have its influence. It shows the trend of thought among the working people. The address shows that there is a more enlightened discussion of the tariff question among the wage-earners of the country, the fruits of which can be plainly seen in the turning of many thousands of democrats from free trade democracy to republican protection.

The Gazette the other day made mention of the fact that Mr. Charles Ridgeley, of Springfield, Illinois, a democrat by birth and education, had joined the republican party. But the Gazette forgot to state another thing, that six other democrats in Springfield did just as Mr. Ridgeley did—join a Harrison club.

Dr. Prentiss, physician, death.

poxide Tablets will both check and cure

VETERANS AT COLUMBUS.

Confederates, on Sunday, all of Sunday night, and during the morning, unloaded their freight of veterans and their families until the city is jammed, and yet only half of the crowd is here. A close estimate of the number of visitors already in the city places it at over 150,000. Nearly all the delegates have arrived and the balance are expected on the early morning train. The Western delegations of veterans of the grand army have arrived in the Eastern cities. They come in thousands. So far accommodations seem to have been provided for all on the ground.
The arrangements are excellent.

Yesterday morning delegations from Colorado, Missouri, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin, Minnesota and several Southern States arrived. The New England State delegations came in a brigadoon.

At the depot there was a large number of men in blue coming from this Bay State city. The features of the day were the arrival of General Sherman and Commander-in-Chief.

General Sherman arrived from his home at Lancaster at noon. A crowd was at the depot and the General was given a hearty welcome.

REPUBLICAN DAY.

Grand Rally of the Republicans at the County Fair on Wednesday, Sept. 12th.

Eloquent Speakers—Grand Barbecue—Splendid Music The Old Veteran Voters.

The grand republican rally at the Rock county fair on Republican Day—Wednesday, September 12th, promises to be one of the largest and most enthusiastic political gatherings that ever assembled in Rock county. Hon. W. E. Mason, of Illinois, and Hon. W. D. Hoard, the republican candidate for governor, will be present and address the people. The County Committee are making an effort to secure ex-Secretary of War Robt. Lincoln, and Senator Spooner, and they will be present; it is possible.

Numerous bands of music will be present, including the martial band and log-cabin. Center will contribute a cavalry company, and there will be many unique attractions in the procession. The ox has been purchased, and the barbecue will not be the least of the attractions on this great day.

There will be a re-union of the veterans of 1840, over three hundred of whom now reside in Rock county. It is intended to get these old political warriors together on that day, around the old log-cabin, and some of the heroes will have something to say.

The County Committee has selected the following gentlemen to act as the reception committee—Hon. I. C. Sloane, Surgeon General Henry Palmer, Hon. James Sutherland, R. P. Pember, Col. W. B. Britton, Major S. C. Cook, Hon. A. Jackson, Hon. A. P. Lovejoy, Hon. Alex. Graham, Stealey C. Smith.

Captain M. A. Newman has been appointed chief marshal, with power to appoint aids.

It is suggested that business men decorate their places on that day with bunting, etc., and make it a gay day for the city.

Republicans are invited to turn out en masse on this occasion, and start the campaign booming.

GEAR THIS IN MIND.

The general news of the day, as presented in a newspaper, is largely made up of trifling details obtained from numerous sources, and every item furnished the news gatherer is of interest to a greater or less number of persons in a community and adds much to the value of the local newspaper. If, therefore, you know of any occurrence, communicate it to the reporter, and thus add something to his difficult task, but add something to the enjoyment and knowledge of your neighbor, and you will at least have the satisfaction of knowing that you have contributed your mite toward diffusing information among your fellow men and earn the gratitude of your paper as well.—Appleton Post.
